Got Kids You Don't Know What To Do With?

There's a world they might not know about waiting in their own backyard.

Here are ideas and activities for endless hours of fun in the great outdoors. Ones that will appeal to kids from tots to teens. As well as projects that will be fun for the whole family, no matter where your summer travels take you. Or even if you stay at home.

Wilderness Kids Club helps kids explore their own natural environment while learning survival skills at the same time. It teaches them to learn by observation and cultivates curiosity and enthusiasm for long-term projects that can cover many days. It gives them confidence in themselves.

With step-by-step instructions, as well as the help of real "Wilderness Experts" to answer questions and give them practical advice on their ideas, they will be having fun in no time.

Discover the world in your own backyard.

Find out more by visiting online over at: WildernessKidsClub.com and following the steps if you would like your children to join. Parental permission is required for membership and all communication is in a "members only" area, not made public online. Information is for Wilderness Kids Club activities only and never sold or used for purposes of advertisement. Our website is family friendly and we take that very seriously. Hope to see you there!

TEACH YOUR KIDS TO DISCIPLINE THEMSELVES THIS SUMMER.

Are you tired of bickering during daily routines encroaching on way too much of your family time? Here is a book that offers a two-week program that teaches your children to discipline themselves. Hard to believe? Find out the step-by-step secrets of how it's done, and why it works. Learn how to:

Stop embarrassing arguments in public places

End sibling rivalry

Get your children to behave better in the classroom

And much more!
